

COURTNEY B. MINOR

Courtney Minor was appointed Regional Counsel for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Region V, headquartered in Chicago, Illinois in October 2002. As Regional Counsel, Mr. Minor supervises a staff of approximately 30 attorneys throughout the Midwest in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin. Subject areas within Mr. Minor's jurisdiction include affordable multi-family housing, block grants to state and local government, single family housing, public and Native American Housing, fair housing, program enforcement, defensive litigation, ethics and personnel law. Prior to his appointment at HUD, Mr. Minor served as Deputy General Counsel for the Chicago Housing Authority, where he supervised a staff of forty-five employees in matters of litigation, real estate development, employment, ethics, procurement and administrative law. Mr. Minor previously served as a Senior Attorney on the staff of the CHA General Counsel. Before working at the CHA, Mr. Minor worked as a Senior Attorney with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and as a Section Chief with the Resolution Trust Corporation in Chicago. He also worked in private practice in Illinois. Mr. Minor graduated from Northwestern University, and he earned both a J.D. and an M.B.A. from the University of California in Los Angeles.